

WORKING WITH JUDGES TO PREVENT AND COMBAT DOMESTIC AND GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

STOP
VIOLENCE

Iceland
Liechtenstein
Norway grants

DAY 1 | JANUARY 27 | THE PORTUGUESE EXPERIENCE

9H30 - 12H30 (LISBON TIME)

Opening

Rosa Monteiro – Secretary of State for Citizenship and Equality

Susana Ramos – Head of National Focal Point

Getting to know Centre for Judicial Studies

Chandra Gracias – Judge trainer in CEJ

Helena Leitão – Senior prosecutor in CEJ

The Portuguese experience regarding CEDAW

The Portuguese experience regarding the Istanbul Convention

The evaluation process – GREVIO and Portugal

The practical application of the Istanbul Convention

Legal challenges of this instrument

Discussions and Q&A

Closing

Sandra Ribeiro – President of the Commission for Citizenship and Gender Equality

WORKING WITH JUDGES TO PREVENT AND COMBAT DOMESTIC AND GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

STOP
VIOLENCE

Iceland
Liechtenstein
Norway grants

DAY 2 | JANUARY 28 | THE NORWEGIAN EXPERIENCE 9H30 - 12H30 (LISBON TIME)

The Norwegian process of ratifying the Istanbul Convention

Line Nærsne – Norwegian Ministry of Justice and Public Security

Hilde Knotten – Norwegian Ministry of Justice and Public Security

The first Norwegian report to the Istanbul Convention

Taran Knudstad – Norwegian Equality- and Anti-Discrimination Ombud

Getting to know the courts of Norway

Cases of domestic violence in Norwegian courts – a historical perspective

Handling cases of domestic violence in Norwegian courts

The use of the Istanbul Convention and CEDAW in Norwegian courts – two cases from the Norwegian Supreme Court

Gisle Johnson, District Court Judge – Agder District Court

Åsne Julsrud, District Court Judge – Oslo District Court

Discussions and Q&A

Final comments/summing up the activity

Marta Silva – Head of Unit of the Domestic and Gender Based Violence Unit in CIG